

Communications Intern:

FUNCTIONS:

Assist in tasks of the Communications Department, including but not limited to:

Updating and maintaining social media accounts • Replying to messages on social media • Writing press releases • Distributing news releases • Booking Project Veritas representatives for TV, radio and news interviews • Preparing marketing materials • Updating website content • Miscellaneous projects and errands as assigned

REQUIRED SKILLSETS

- Excellent communication skills
- Capable of working on tight deadline and short notice
- Thick-skin, strong mental fortitude, and the ability to rise to the challenge
- Highly organized and detail-oriented
- Ability to maintain strictest confidentiality
- Team-player
- "Change the world" visionary
- Understanding of and deep commitment to the principles of limited government, free enterprise, and personal responsibility

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

Due to the rapid tempo of the organization, the candidate must be of a flexible and accommodating nature, willing to get the job done in a team-like environment.

The person in this position will be expected to live in the New York Metropolitan area.